NEWSLETTER

Week 6, Term 3

26th August, 2010

Dear Parents and Community Members,

I would like to welcome Mrs Janet Shipard to our school. Janet is from Brocklesby and will be teaching Scripture to the children every second Thursday. Thank you Mrs Shipard for coming to us and I know that the students will show you straight away what a wonderful group they are.

I would like to thank Charmain Lieschke for her contribution over the past years as Scripture teacher—she has been greatly appreciated.

Aboriginal Education Day

WHAT I LEARNT ON ABORIGINAL EDUCATION DAY

Aboriginal people draw people sitting. We learn about the type of nuts you can eat from trees. Ella.

We learnt how to make Johnny Cakes—you just need flour and water. Robert.

We learnt how to put together a possum skin and how it is added to as you get older. Rose.

The possum skin cloak had drawings on the back about the owners life and family. Adrian.

We learnt how to make Johnny Cakes. Mitchell.

The Aboriginal name for kangaroo changed depending on when you saw them. The types of seeds (grass, wattle) for making bread. Blake.

We learnt how to do symbols for men and women when painting. Corey.

We learnt about grinding wheat with stones to make flour. Harry.

We learnt how they made fire. Wattle seeds can make a drink like coffee. Kate.

The possum skin cloak can be worn inside out to make a rain coat. Tilly.

We learnt how to mix colours. Jack.

Kangaroos leave behind happiness when they land. Dolphins are kangaroos still jumping. They are just in the water. Abbey.

We learnt how soft and warm the possum skin cloak was. Rory.
